COACH SPOTLIGHT

ALEX NIKOLIC

“THE DINOSAUR”

For decades, the AC Toros region and the greater Milwaukee Kickers community have been lucky to have Coach Alex Nikolic.

Over the years, countless players have learned and grown under Coach Alex’s guidance. This season, Coach Alex worked with U9 and U10 teams, continuing a long history of coaching players at every age level. From the youngest players to older teams, he is always ready to step in and support where needed.

Coach Alex lives by a simple but powerful motto:

“IT’S NOT ABOUT YOU AND ME, IT’S ABOUT THE PLAYERS”

This philosophy shapes Coach Alex’s approach to youth soccer. He focuses on teaching the game and then giving players the space to play, learn, and grow. While it can be tempting to guide every moment from the sidelines. Coach Alex values patience and believes players learn best through experience—even when that includes mistakes.

Coach Alex has dedicated many decades to the Milwaukee Kickers. Alongside his wife, Helga, he helped found the club in 1968 with a simple goal: to make fútbol accessible to players throughout the Milwaukee area and beyond. That vision still holds true today.

Coach Alex's love for teaching the game shows up at every training session. Whether he's demonstrating proper ankle positioning to control the ball or kicking a ball through a basketball hoop, his passion for the sport and for teaching is clear.

Coach Alex celebrated his 80th birthday a few years ago and remains an active and valued part of the club. His mentorship and dedication have left a lasting mark on the AC Toros region and the Milwaukee Kickers community.

Thank you to Coach Alex Nikolic and his wife, Helga, for their continued commitment to our players and our club.

CLARIFYING THE CALL

RULE #9

FOULS AND MISCONDUCT:

A player who kicks, trips, strikes, elbows, jumps at, pushes, holds, charges, commits a dangerous play, obstructs, or intentionally handles the ball (except the goalkeeper in his/her own penalty area) shall be penalized by awarding a free kick to the offended team. Any of the above fouls committed by the defending team in its penalty area shall result in a penalty kick and a two or five-minute time penalty. An offense committed in the penalty area by the defending team which is not worthy of a time penalty (e.g. obstruction or dangerous play) shall not result in a penalty kick and play shall be restarted with a free kick to the offended team at the top of the restraining arc.

WHAT IS A FOUL?

WHAT CONSTITUTES A FOUL AND WHEN IS A BLUE CARD SHOWN?

LET'S REVIEW PORTIONS OF INDOOR RULE NUMBER 9:

SLIDE TACKLING ON A PLAYER IS NOT ALLOWED.

PENALTY TIME PENALTIES:

Penalties will be assessed against players for committing any of the twelve offenses (kicking, tripping, striking, spitting, elbowing, jumping at, pushing, holding, or pulling, charging, tackling, committing a dangerous play, obstructing, or intentionally handling the ball (except the goalkeeper in his/her own penalty area) while the ball is in play. A time penalty must be assessed for incidents of boarding (even unintentional will result in a blue card), elbowing, striking, spitting, and other offenses deemed severe, tactical or blatant in nature. These two or five-minute penalties shall be administered by the showing of a Blue, Yellow, or Red card by the referee, and a power play shall be awarded to the offended team. A player may be suspended for the remaining minutes of a game for boarding (intentional or not). The action may also result in a red card depending on the severity of the action.
