TEAM & COACH SPOTLIGHT

12U SELECT BOYS

COACHES -
COREY WENCL, MATT ODEGAARD
& TYLER MOE

The LX United 12U Select Boys did not only win matches this year but created something greater.

With an unbeaten record in league play and a hard-earned promotion to Division 2 this Spring, the team proved what can be achieved when hard work, vision, and growth come together. Although the team achieved success on the pitch, what truly drove them to reach their full potential was the culture they built one defined by development, unity, and a sense of togetherness.

Behind every great team, there is even greater leadership. The LX United coaching team of Corey Wencil, Matt Odegaard, and Tyler Moe led from the very first day, creating a culture of that embodies the LX United way. Their vision for the team was straightforward and consistent throughout the year: To create confident, disciplined, intelligent players who love the game and play it the right way.

This vision was present at every training session and match. The coaching staff emphasized growth over results, teamwork over individual recognition, and building a culture that reflected the players' belief in one another, a foundation that ultimately led to such a successful season.

Among the many players who contributed to this incredible season, one player stood out above the rest; Declan Drouillard.

New to the team this season, Declan came in right away and proved himself to be a true team-first player. His leadership qualities were not lost on the coaches, and he was soon awarded the position of being one of the team captains.

Primarily a striker, Declan proved to be incredibly versatile. He showed a great deal of promise at both holding midfield and attacking midfield. Always ready to fill whatever role the coaches asked of him.

Declan's selfless play and attitude were contagious. He brought out the best among the players around him, always putting the needs of the team before his own. His work ethic, poise, and leadership qualities were an example to the entire team.

In a season that was all about culture and team development, Declan embodies the core principles of LX United. ⚽
